SUBJECT: Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) between the Guam Fire Department and the Guam Federation of Teachers

Dear Maga'håga,

I am writing to inform you that the attached Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) between the Guam Fire Department and the Guam Federation of Teachers is now in its final stages and is awaiting your signature for formal approval.

After extensive negotiations, all parties have reached a mutually agreed-upon resolution, addressing the concerns and needs of both sides. The agreement includes provisions in line with Department of Administrations Rules and Regulations and/or local and federal law.

This agreement represents a significant achievement in fostering positive labor relations and ensuring the continued success of GFD. The terms outlined in the CBA are expected to have a positive impact on both the workforce and the department itself.

Please review the attached agreement at your earliest convenience. Should you have any questions or require further clarification regarding the details, I am available to provide additional information.

Upon your signature, the agreement will be formally ratified and implemented. Thank you for your attention to this matter and your continued support in advancing labor relations in our state.

Sincerely,

Daren D. Burrier

INFORMATION AND GUIDANCE

Ref: GFD 24-0327

TO: Acting Fire Chief, Guam Fire Department
FROM: Assistant Attorney General
SUBJECT: Guam Fire Department ("GFD") & Guam Federation of Teachers ("GFT") - Collective Bargaining Agreement

Attached is the original Collective Bargaining Agreement ("CB Agreement") between the GFD and GFT. For the reasons stated herein, the CB Agreement is recommended for approval as to legality and form.

The CB Agreement was duly ratified by the GFD in a Ratification Vote and has been signed by the GFT's President. I have reviewed the CB Agreement and find it to be in order. Accordingly, this serves to recommend that the CB Agreement be approved.

This letter and the statements herein are provided as information and guidance only. If the GFD has any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Hafa Adai Ed,

GFT is pleased to advise GFD that the Collective Bargaining Agreement was duly ratified in the recent Ratification Vote, and Tim Fedenko the GFT President has signed the CBA on behalf of the GFT Union.

GFT is returning to you the original duly signed Collective Bargaining Agreement so that Chief San Nicolas can now send the CBA to the Guam Attorney General's Office for review and signatory.

Thereafter, upon the CBA's return to GFD, once signed by the AG, please have Chief San Nicolas forward the GFT-GFD Collective Bargaining Agreement to the Governor for her review and signing; the CBA is effective upon the Governor signing it; so once it is returned to GFD, please send the completed original CBA to GFT for its safe, and retain a signed copy for GFD's records.

Once again, many thanks for your good efforts in bringing about this First GFD-GFT CBA !

Respectfully submitted,

Dan Del Priore

PREAMBLE

The Parties to this collective Bargaining Agreement, the Guam Federation of Teachers, Local 1581, hereinafter referred to as the "Union" and the Guam Fire Department, Government of Guam hereinafter called the "Department" affirm their commitment to achieve and maintain harmonious relation between the Union and the Department, to provide for equitable and peaceful adjustments of differences which may arise, and to contractually establish wages, hour, and other conditions of employment for the members of the bargaining unit, as established by law. This first collective Bargaining Agreement is a commitment by the parties to provide the best possible fire prevention, fire suppression, hazardous materials response unit, emergency medical, E-911 and rescue system for the people of Guam.

In meeting the challenges of this commitment, a new level of collaboration amongst the Union and the Department is needed as we move out of the past and into the future. The Department and the Union recognize that this shared responsibility can only be met through shared decision-making and the empowerment of all who are involved. This document seeks to enable the Department to adapt, to change, and to provide for a process of continual improvement. It supports and requires constant communication and cooperation between all parties. In an atmosphere of mutual understanding and trust, the Department and the Union hereby make this formal Agreement.

The Parties agree that neither the Department, nor the Executive Council of the Union, nor any Member of the Union may intentionally violate any provision of this Agreement.

This Agreement shall not supersede any policies, rules, regulations, or practices of Government of Guam which may be contrary to or inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to the Guam Fire Department's Standard Operating Procedures, Prevention and Investigation Protocols, Department of Administration Personnel Rules and Regulations, and established standards.

The merit bonus may be automatic upon a superior/outstanding rating evaluation conducted for increment purposes. The merit bonus is in addition to the increment provided and is limited to the fiscal year in which superior/outstanding performance is rendered as defined by this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI - LEAVE POLICIES

A leave of absence is an approved absence from duty, by the appointing authority or his designated representative, for a prescribed period of time, with or without pay. Once leave is granted it cannot be revoked unless the Governor declares a state of emergency.

6.A. Annual Leave

The appointing authority may afford an opportunity for Members to take leave, and particularly to avoid, whenever possible, loss of leave by forfeiture. However, leave may only be denied by the appointing authority when it can be documented that the services of the Member are required in order to maintain operational standards. If too many Members request leave for the same time period leave may be determined on the basis of Seniority; Sonority will be used when more than one employee submits leave requests at the same time for the same duration.

6.A.1. Request for Annual Leave

Requests for annual leave may be submitted to the appropriate supervisor by the Member, at least one (1) pay period in advance, for leaves in excess of one (1) pay period; and twenty-four (24) hours in advance for leaves less than one (1) pay period in order to avoid unnecessary disruption of work. Reasonable consideration may be afforded for emergency situations.

6.A.2. Minimum Charge for Annual Leave

A Member who uses annual leave in an amount of time which is less than a full hour, may be charged leave daily according to the following table, but not more than nine (9) hours per duty day for uniformed personnel.

Used (Minutes)	Time Charged Minutes
0 – 14	00
15 – 30	30
31 – 60	60

6.A.3. Accrual of Annual Leave

Members occupying permanent positions may accrue annual leave in accordance with The following schedule:

- a) One-half day (four hours) for each full bi-weekly pay period in the case of Members with less than three years of service.
- b) Three-fourths day (6 hours) for each full bi-weekly pay period except that the accrual for the last full bi-weekly pay period in the year may be one and one-fourth day (10 hours) in the case of Members with three, but less than 15 years of service.
- c) One day (eight hours) for each full bi-weekly pay period in the case of Members with 15 or more years of service.
- d) Annual leave earned during any pay period may be credited to the Member's account on the last day of that pay period in the case of separation, the last day the Member is on the payroll.
- e) A Member may continue to earn annual leave credits during leaves of absence with pay for each bi-weekly pay period, otherwise there may be no accrual for such period.

6.A.4. Carry-Over and Accumulation of Annual Leave

Annual leave accrued and unused in a leave year may be accumulated and carried over to the next leave year. Annual leave in excess of 320 hours may be automatically credited to accumulated sick leave provided, that not more than 100 hours may be credited to sick leave.

6.A.5. Lump Sum Payment for Annual Leave upon Separation or Transfer*

When a Member is separated from the government service, he/she may be given a lump sum payment for any accrued and unused annual leave as of the date of separation.

6.A.6. Lump Sum Payment for Annual Leave upon Transfer*

Any Member who transfers from one branch of the government of Guam to another, or from one agency, instrumentality or corporation of the Government of Guam to another department, agency, instrumentality or corporation at his/her option, may accept the cash value of his/her earned leave at the time of transfer, or transfer his/her accumulated leave to his/her new government position, notwithstanding the fact that such transfer may appear on the Member's personnel records as a resignation and reappointment.

6.B. Sick Leave

Members accrue one hundred four (104) hours [thirteen (13) days] of sick leave per duty year, regardless of the beginning or ending dates of the duty year. Sick leave may be used for the purposes outlined below and elsewhere in this Agreement and other policies.

6.B.1. Sick leave with pay may be allowed whenever the member is compelled to be absent from duty on account of pregnancy, childbirth, illness, injury or because of quarantine of anyone in the member's residence. Doctor, dental and/or optical appointments are chargeable to sick leave.

6.B.2. Sick leave with pay may be granted for the following reasons:

- a) Illness of the Member's spouse, common law, parents, parents-in-law, grandparents, brothers, sisters, children, grandchildren, any step or adoptive parents, adopted children or grandchildren of both the Member and the spouse or common law, a guardian or person in loco parentis.
- b) Death or doctor-certified critical condition of grandparents, parents, parents-in-law, spouse, common law, brother, sister, child, or legal dependent, grandchildren, sons/daughters-in-law. An additional day may be allowed when one of the above is off-island.
- c) If a member is absent because of illness for four (4) or more consecutive days (for 24-hour Uniform Personnel absent in excess of two consecutive duty days), the Member may be required to furnish certification of such illness from a licensed physician. Sick leave for less than four consecutive days may not require a physician's certification except for specific cases where a Member's pattern of sick leave indicates possible misuse of leave. In the latter case, a Fire Chief or Designee may require such individual to provide a physician's certification of illness if the Fire Chief or Designee has stated in writing to the individual that such certification will be subsequently required and has outlined in writing the pattern upon which this action is based. If the certification required is not furnished, all absences, which would have been covered by such certification, may be classified as absent without leave.
- d) The Department may provide each member with a statement of accumulated sick leave in September and February, unless such information is included on the Member's biweekly pay statements.
- e) Minimum Charge for Sick Leave -A Member who uses sick leave in an amount of time which is less than a full hour, may be charged leave daily according to the following table, but not more than nine (9) hours per duty day for uniformed personnel.

Used (Minutes)	Time Charged Minutes
0 – 14	00
15 – 30	30
31 – 60	60

- f) Accumulation and Carry Over of Sick Leave - Unused sick leave may be accumulated and carried over to succeeding leave years without limitation
- g) Vesting of Sick Leave -Sick leave accrued for service with the Government of Guam or any of its instrumentalities, branches, authorities or any entity, corporation or agency, may vest in the Member upon accrual and may remain vested in such Member while he/she is employed by the government notwithstanding the fact, that from time to time, he/she may be transferred from one branch to another or to an autonomous agency, authority or other entity within the Government of Guam. Sick leave accrued and unused at the time of separation from the government may remain credited to the Member if such Member returns to government service. A Member, approved for disability retirement, may exhaust his accrued sick leave prior to effecting his/her retirement.

- h) Advance of Sick Leave -A Member, who has suffered a serious illness or ailment and has exhausted his/her sick leave and who intends to return to work, may submit a written request, for advance of sick leave, to his/her appointing authority. Each request for advance of sick leave must be accompanied by a certification of incapacitation for duty by the Member's physician. An advance of sick leave may not exceed 13 days, and may be subject to approval by the appointing authority.
- i) If a Member is separated from service without having earned all of the sick leave allowed and taken, there may be deducted from any money due to the Member at the time of separation, an amount equal to his salary for the period of unearned sick leave allowed and taken.
- j) If the Member is medically certified as being unable to return to work after all accrued and/or advanced sick leave credits have been used, the Member may be allowed to use any accrued compensatory or annual leave credits before being placed on leave without pay.
- k) Lump Sum Payment for Sick Leave Prohibited - No Member who separates from government service for any reason may receive a cash payment for sick leave accrued at the time he leaves such service; except that upon the death of the Member, a lump sum payment of unused sick leave may be made in accordance with Section 7102, Title 4 of the Guam Code Annotated as it stands on June 5, 2008.

- g) Public Employment -Employment by the Government of Guam or any political subdivision thereof.
- h) Coverage - Compensations may be payable pursuant to Government Code Title 33(P.L. 1-80, as amended) in case of disability or death of an employee, but only if the disability or death results from an injury sustained while engaged in public employment.

6.C.2. Denial of Compensation

No compensation may be payable if the injury was occasioned solely by the intoxication, substance abuse, or the reckless or intentional act of the employee to injure or kill himself/ herself or others.

A Member may receive a pay increment upon meeting the criteria set forth in this Agreement.

A Member who suffers a job-related injury will be carried on full pay status (Continuation of regular pay -COP) without charge to his annual or sick leave, provided that:

- a) such pay status does not exceed 120 duty days following the date of injury; and
- b) a certification from his physician that the Member is totally incapacitated to perform regular or light duty work.
- c) After 120 duty days and the Member is not fit for regular or light duty work, the Member may, at his discretion, request other types of leave status as provided in these rules.

6.C.3. Certified Incapacitation

If a Member is certified as totally incapacitated, he may not return to work unless a physician certifies that the Member is capable of returning to regular or light duty status. If post injury treatment becomes necessary, the Member may report to work, however, the Member may be excused for treatment without charge to his annual or sick leave provided that:

- a) such pay status does not exceed 120 duty days following the date of injury.

- b) After 120 duty days and the Member is not fit for regular or light duty work, the Member may request other types of leave as provided in these rules, or file for disability retirement. For Members on leave without pay (LWOP) status, a claim may be filed with Worker's Compensation for the number of hours on leave without pay.

6.C.4. Exemptions to Coverage

In any case where a Member is injured as a result of his own gross or wanton negligence, the employer may controvert the claim using the appropriate form.

6.C.5. Responsibilities

A Member who incurs a job-related injury while on duty must comply with the following procedures:

- a) Immediately report the injury to his supervisor.
- b) In cases of serious injury, medical assistance may be sought for the Member at the nearest medical facility. If necessary, an ambulance should be called to transport the Member. The supervisor, or his designee, may accompany the injured Member to the medical facility. Prompt notification of the Member's family must be made by the supervisor.
- c) A Member may file at any time a claim for Worker's Compensation or disability retirement.
- d) If a Member is certified as totally incapacitated, the Member may not return to work unless a physician certifies that the Member is capable of returning to regular or light duty work. When post treatment is necessary, the Member may report to work and continue with his treatment without charge to leave.
- e) A Member who is able only to work part-time duty while recuperating from an on-the-job injury may receive full pay, without charge to hours not worked during such recuperation period provided, that such duty due to recuperation, does not exceed 120 work days from the date part-time light duty is authorized. The Member must present a statement of incapacitation from full-time duty from his physician to be eligible for the excused absence on a part-time basis.
- f) A Member who is medically certified to only work part-time in excess of 120 duty days may be compensated by the Worker's Compensation from the Government of Guam's Special Fund, pursuant to the Worker's Compensation Law.

6.D. Appeals Process

- 6.D. 1. Upon receipt of a Member's appeal, the Director may coordinate the appointment of a Work Injury Status Committee composed of one Member, each from the Department of Administration, Department of Labor, and the Retirement Fund. The committee may have the authority to review the case presented by the Member and management and present its findings to the appointing authority and the Member. The portfolio for review may require the physician's report (diagnosis and prognosis), the committee's fact finding report and decision, dates of meetings and transmittal of related information to be sent to the appointing authority for action. The committee's decision may either be to extend the Member's absence from work due to work-related injuries not to exceed one year, or to separate the Member. The Member may appeal the committee's decision to the Civil Service Commission within 30 days of receipt of the committee's decision.

6.D.2. Any Member may also appeal to the Commission for review of the facts that led to the disapproval of his work injury leave.

6.E. Excused Absences/Administrative Leave

6.E.1. Administrative Leave

Generally, an excused absence is an absence from duty administratively authorized without loss of pay and without charge to leave. Supervisors and Members will apply the following procedures for excused absences.

6.E.2. Attendance at Official Meetings/Conferences on or off-Island

- a) Members may initiate a written request for an excused absence citing the purpose of the meeting/conference, dates involved and costs, if any, to the appointing authority. ii) The appointing authority will evaluate the relative costs, availability of funds, potential for the Member's development, and desirability of government representation when approving the on or off-island meetings and conferences. iii) Upon approval of the request, a copy may be provided to both the Member and the payroll office.

6.E.3. Jury Duty uniform personnel exemption

A Member, who is called for jury duty in any court in the Territory of Guam, may be excused from duty with full pay and without charge to leave for all hours required for such duty, not to exceed the number of hours in the Member's normal work day. However, if the jury duty does not require absence for the entire work day, the Member may return to duty immediately upon release by the court. A Member called for jury duty is required to show the Jury Duty Call Notification to his supervisor. Supervisors are responsible for advising Members that all compensation earned for such jury service, except allowances for travel, must be paid to the Government of Guam, in accordance with Section 6505, Chapter 6, Title 4 of the Guam Code Annotated. A Member may elect to request for annual leave for the purpose of jury duty service, in which case the Member may keep the compensation earned for such jury duty.

The granting of educational leave with pay may be in accordance with the Department's educational program. Only Members who have completed their original probationary period are eligible to participate in this program.

6.E.15. Holidays

Members may absent themselves from duty on the holidays established by these rules, provided however, that work assignments may be required to be carried out if previous notification is given by the appointing authority.

Legal Holidays include every Sunday and the following:

1. Christmas Day December 25
2. New Year's Day January 1
3. Martin Luther King Jr. Day third Monday in January
4. Memorial Day Last Monday in May
5. Independence Day July 4

6. Liberation Day July 21
7. Labor Day 1st Monday in September
8. All Soul's Day November 2
9. Veteran's Day November 11
10. Thanksgiving Day 4th Thursday in November
11. Our Lady of Camarin Day December 8
12. Every day appointed by the President of the United States or the Governor of Guam for a public fast, Thanksgiving Day, or Island-wide Election Day, except elections for Youth Congress, and other days as may be designated by proclamation of the Governor or President of the United States may be paid holidays. If any of the numbered holidays listed above falls upon a Sunday, the following Monday is a holiday, and if any of such holidays falls upon a Saturday, the preceding Friday is a holiday.

6.E.16. Legal Holiday for Irregular Hours of Duty

Members whose workweek is other than Monday through Friday, and whose holiday falls on a non-work day, their holiday may be determined as follows:

- a) Sunday Holiday:
 1. When a Member's workweek does not include Sunday, and a holiday falls on Sunday, his/her next regular work day within his/her workweek is his/her holiday.
 2. When a Member's workweek includes Sunday and a holiday falls on the day that has been designated as his/her non-work day in lieu of Sunday, next regular work day after his/her "in lieu of Sunday" within his/her workweek is his holiday.
- b) Other Holidays: When a holiday falls on a Member's non-work day other than Sunday, the regular work day preceding the Member's non -workday is his/her holiday.

6.F. Leave Without Pay

6.F.1. Leave without Pay

Members may request leave without pay for good cause when their current authorized annual or sick leave with pay, will not cover the total period of requested leave.

6.F.2. No Accrual: Annual or Sick Leave

When a Member is on leave without pay status, accrual of sick, annual or retirement credit is not allowed.

6.F.3. Request by the Member

Leave without pay is a temporary non-pay status and an absence granted in response to a Member's request. Leave without pay covers only those hours which a Member would otherwise work or, for which he/she would be paid.

6.F.4. Authorization

Authorizing leave without pay is a matter of administrative discretion. A Member cannot demand that he/she be granted leave without pay as a matter of right, except in the case of:

- a) Disabled veterans who are entitled to leave without pay, if necessary, for medical treatment; and
- b) Members of the Reserve Components of the U.S. Armed Forces who are entitled to leave without pay, if necessary, to perform military training duties.

6.F.5. Leave without Pay Leave

A Member who does not have adequate annual or sick leave credits may submit a written request for leave without pay to his supervisor. The Member's request should indicate the reasons and the need for leave without pay, and the date Member intends to return to duty from leave.

6.F.6. Examples of Appropriate Use of Leave without Pay

Examples of types of cases for which approval of extended leave without pay would be proper, all other factors being favorable, are:

- a) For educational purpose, when the course of study or research is in line with a type of work which is being performed by the Member's department/agency, and completion of which would contribute to the department's/agency's best interests.
- b) For the purpose of recovery from illness or disability, not of a permanent or disqualifying nature, when continued employment or immediate return to employment would threaten impairment of the Member's health, or the health of other Members.
- c) For the purpose of caring for a child upon birth or adoption.

- d) For the purpose of providing care to a spouse or child who is ill or disabled, or to provide care to elderly parents or parents-in-law.

6.F.7. Military Leave without Pay -Special Provision

Any classified Member, except a Member who is employed in a temporary position or employed on a temporary basis, who is drafted, who volunteers for active military service, or who is ordered to active duty (not active duty military training as outlined in Rule 8.413) consistent with Section 6218(d) of Title 4 of the Guam Code Annotated may be granted limited leave without pay, beginning with the date of induction and, not to exceed a period of four (4) years of military service. Active military service includes active duty with the U.S. Army, the U.S. Air Force, the U.S. Marine Corps, the U.S. Navy, the U.S. Coast Guard, National Guard of Guam or other services as provided by Guam law. Such leave of absence may be verified by official orders or appropriate military certification which may be filed in the Member's personnel file.

During such leave of absence, the Member may be entitled to retain the same rights and privileges as a Member granted leave without pay in accordance with these rules.

All unused leave benefits may be retained by the Member, who may have the same credited to the Member's record upon return to his assigned position consistent with Section 6218(d) of Title 4 of the Guam Code Annotated.

Upon termination under honorable conditions of such active duty, the Member may be entitled to reinstatement in his previous position provided the Member makes application for reinstatement within 90 days after discharge.

If the Member volunteers for an additional tour of military duty, the Member may forfeit the right to return to the position.

ARTICLE VII – COMMITTEES

The Department and the Union recognize the value of members and management working together in order to help the Department fulfill its mission to the standards of excellence that the people of Guam deserve. Therefore, the Union and the Department may form joint Union-Management committees. Specific committees may be delineated in Appendix C.

7.A. FORMATION

Within 30 days of the beginning of the Fiscal year (or the initial implementation date of this agreement) the Fire Chief or Designee and the Union or their designees may meet to submit their list of representatives to the appropriate committees. Unless otherwise stated in this agreement each committee may consist of four (4) members appointed by the Union and four (4) members appointed by Management.

7. B. JOINT COMMITTEE OPERATIONS

All joint committees may operate in accordance with the rules set forth below.

7.B.1. Fire Chief or Designee and the President of the Union, or their designees

The Fire Chief or Designee and the President of the Union, or their designees, may appoint a chairperson pro-tern for each committee, who may make the appropriate arrangements for the committee's initial meeting. The committee may elect a chairperson and a secretary and whatever other officers it deems necessary, from among its members.

7.B.2. Joint Committee

All joint committees may hold their first meeting within fourteen days of their formation. Thereafter, meetings may be scheduled at a time and place to be determined by the committee. Meetings may be scheduled outside duty hours, but members may be considered in Duty Status while at the meeting inclusive of any reasonable breaks or travel time.

7.B.3. Minutes

Minutes of each meeting may be kept, to include time and place of meeting, members present, actions taken and results of votes taken. The minutes may show date, time, and place of next meeting. Copies of the minutes may be promptly provided to the Fire Chief or Designee and the Union.

7.B.4. Quorum

A quorum for the initial meeting may be a majority of the number of committee members appointed. The committee may determine its quorum for subsequent meetings.

7.B.5. Cancellation of Meeting

Any committee meetings cancelled may be promptly reported by the chairperson to the Fire Chief or Designee and the Union with the reasons for cancellation and listing of those absent, if applicable, for corrective actions as appropriate, and for rescheduling of the meeting.

7.B.6. Committee Procedure

Committees may establish procedures for the conduct of their meetings. In the absence of such procedures, committee meetings may be governed by Robert's Rules of Order (Revised) except as modified above.

7.B.7. Committee Recommendation

The Fire Chief or Designee/Board may accept and implement the recommendations of any committee, or remand them to the committee for further action. If remanded, the committee may schedule its next meeting as soon as possible.

ARTICLE VIII - UNIFORMS AND EQUIPMENT

The Department, if funding is made available, may provide all members with the necessary uniforms and/or equipment at no cost to the member or they may provide a cash equivalent, the amount of which must be negotiated with the Union, within 120 calendar days after the beginning of the fiscal year. Preferential bidding will go to any equipment or uniforms that are manufactured or assembled on Guam. Specific Equipment and/or uniform requirements will be delineated in Appendix D.

ARTICLE IX- EQUALIZATION OF BENEFITS

The Department and the Union equally oppose any equalization legislation, plan, or program that would decrease the salary or benefit of any member.

ARTICLE X - MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

10.A. NON-DISCRIMINATION

The parties mutually reaffirm their respective policies on non-discrimination in the treatment of any Member because of race, religious creed, color, sex, sexual preference, age, gender, union activity, national origin, ancestry, marital status or physical handicap. The Department and the Union agree to abide by Federal and State laws prohibiting discrimination.

All Members covered by this Agreement may have the right to join the Union, to engage in lawful concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection, to express or communicate to management any view, grievance, complaint or opinion related to the conditions of compensation and/or employment of public Members or their betterment, all free from restraint, coercion, discrimination or reprisal.

Nothing may abridge the right of any duly authorized representative of the Union to present views of the Union on issues which affect the welfare of its members.

10.B. SAVINGS

10.B.1. Grievances

Grievances initiated prior to this Agreement (as extended) and pending on the execution hereof between the parties are saved and may be prosecuted by the aggrieved party as though the prior Agreement is still in force. If no prior Agreement exists, then prior grievances will be executive per this Agreement.

10.B.2. Prior leave entitlement and balances

Prior leave entitlement and balances are not affected by expiration of any prior Agreement (as extended) and the execution of this Agreement.

10.C. TRANSITION

10.C.I. Union/Department Head Meetings

The President of the Union and/or his designee and the Fire Chief or Designee may meet regularly to ensure an orderly transition to this Agreement. To that end they may from time to time agree to interpretations of language, implementation of provisions and such other matters as will provide for smooth transition.

10.D. NEGOTIATIONS

10.D.1. Duration of Agreement

This Agreement and each and every part hereof may become effective upon approval of the Governor and may remain in full force and effect until midnight one year from the date of implementation.

10.D.2. Request to Negotiate

If either party desires to modify any or all parts of this Agreement either party may give written notice of same to the other party 90-days prior, there to. A jointly developed schedule for negotiations may be completed within 30 days of any such written notice and negotiations may commence no later than the last day of the month following the establishment of the said schedule.

10.D.3. Negotiating Teams

Each party may designate in writing the names of three (3) persons who may serve on their respective negotiating teams and be empowered to speak for them, and be responsible for negotiations pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement. Each party may, at the time of the first meeting, designate the person on their team who will be the spokesperson or chief negotiator. If either party finds it necessary to change members of the team during negotiations, they may so inform the other party in writing. In the interest of providing a situation whereby maximum progress can be made during negotiations, each party agrees to keep changes as minimal as possible.

In addition to the core members, additional negotiating team members may be included on a scheduled basis.

10.D.4. Request of Documents for Pertinent to Negotiation

Upon the request of either party, the other may make available for inspection and copying, documents and records pertinent to the subject of negotiations. Both parties have the right to request that their most recent proposals be answered by a written counterproposal.

10.D.5. Tentative Agreements

An article, or portion thereof, is considered a tentative agreement only when mutually signed and dated by both parties. All tentative agreements are subject to formal ratification by the Department and the Union.

10.D.6. Ratifications

When tentative agreements have been negotiated on all matters submitted by the parties, the Agreement may be reduced to writing and presented to the Union for ratification. The Union may have fifteen (15) days in which to present a written report to the Department for their action. Following such ratification, the Agreement may be subject to ratification by the Department that may take place within fifteen (15) days of the date the Union notifies the Department of ratification. The Agreement may then be forwarded to the Attorney General and the Governor.

10.E. POLICY, RULES AND REGULATIONS, GENERAL ORDERS

The provisions of this Agreement may not control where any direct conflict exists between this Agreement and any other Department Policies, Rules and regulations, General Orders, or Policies.

10.F. PRINTING AND POSTING OF THIS AGREEMENT

The Union may print the Agreement at the Departments expense, and subsequent modifications, within 30 days after approval of the Agreement. The Agreement may be printed in the most economical and legible format. There may be 1 A copies per member printed of which 20 may be delivered to the Fire Chief or Designee. The Union may be responsible for distribution to members of the Bargaining Unit. Copies of the Agreement may be posted on both the Departments and the Unions web site.

10.G. EFFECTIVE DATES OF AGREEMENT

10.G.1. This Agreement and each and every part hereof may become effective upon approval of the Governor and may remain in full force and effect until midnight one year from the date of implementation.

10.G.2. Any articles of this Agreement may be mutually agreed to be reopened for negotiation. Re-openers may occur on the days and months noted in paragraph four(4)below.

10.G.3. This Agreement may be renewed automatically for another year unless one of the parties may have officially notified the other in writing, 60 days prior to the expiration of the current Agreement.

10.G.4. Re-openers may proceed according to the following schedule:

December 15	written notice of intent to reopen
April 15	scheduling of negotiations
June 3, 5	negotiations begin

(Should any of these dates fall on a weekend or a government holiday, the next workday may replace the above dates.)

10.G.5. This agreement may be amended at any time by mutual written agreement of the parties. This Agreement may, after approval of the Attorney General, be submitted to the Governor for her signature. This contract may be executive upon the approval of the Governor.

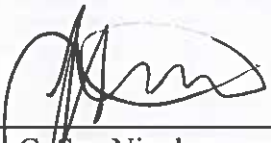

10.H. SEVERABILITY

In the event that any portion of this Agreement, in whole or in part, is declared to be illegal, void or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, all other items, conditions and provisions of this Agreement may remain in full force and effect to the same extent as if that provision had never been incorporated in this Agreement, and in such event the remainder of this Agreement may continue to be binding upon the parties thereto.

APPENDIX

If any of the following sections below are in conflict or contrary to definitions, rules, provided by the Government of Guam, Department of Administration Personnel Rules and Regulations, Guam Fire Department General Orders, Guam Fire Department Standard Operating Procedures, they shall be considered invalid.

APPENDIX A - ASSIGNMENTS

- A. Every effort may be made to assign members as close to their residence as possible. Assignments will be based on the order of the following:
1. Operational Needs
 2. Seniority (based on the total time working within the Department)
 - a. Seniority may not be used to transfer to another station (outside of normal rotations) unless both of the prospective transferring Members, agree to the transfer in writing.
- B. Shifts - Uniform Personnel assigned to fire stations will work one (1) of two (2) shift schedules, "A" or "B". Each shift will consist of a minimum of 120 hours (106 regular hours and 14 overtime hours) in a pay period, which may be divided into five (5) twenty -four duty days, with a minimum of one (1) twenty-four (24) hour break period in between each duty day per shift. The House Captain, in consultation with the district commander, will create the work schedule for his/her respective shift. Scheduling preferences will be based on Seniority.
- At stations where there is an ambulance, ambulance assignments will be rotated on a twenty-four- hour basis in a fair and equitable manner and will be for a minimum of twenty-four hours.
- C. Transfers/Rotations - 180 days after this Agreement takes effect, the Department may establish a rotation schedule such that one (1) member per station, per shift schedule is rotated to a new station/worksites, with the intent that every member at every station/worksites will be rotated once within a twenty-four (24) month period. No member, however, may be rotated more than once within an eighteen (18) month period, unless to fill vacancies due to retirement, resignation, termination or death separation of an employee.
- D. Manning of Stations /Vehicles: All stations and vehicles will be manned in accordance with NFPA standards.
- E. Ceremonial Guard: The Department may develop two (2) Ceremonial Guards, one for Shift 'A' and one for Shift 'B', to serve at appropriate funeral services and other events. Each Ceremonial Guard may consist of at least sixteen (16) Members. The Ceremonial Guard for each shift will be comprised of members from that respective shift i.e. Members assigned to Shift 'A' may participate in the Ceremonial Guard for Shift 'A' and Members assigned to Shift 'B' may participate in the Ceremonial Guard for Shift 'B'. In the event that more than the needed sixteen (16) Members elect to participate in the Ceremonial Guard for their respective shift, seniority will determine assignments to the Ceremonial Guard. However, Members will be rotated every quarter in a fair and equal way, so as to allow all interested Members an opportunity to serve in the Ceremonial Guard. Each Member who elects to participate in the Ceremonial Guard for their respective shift, will be provided the appropriate uniform and equipment (refer to Appendix D) as well as compensated for their participation (refer to Appendix B), as outlined in this Agreement.

APPENDIX B - PAY

- A. EMT-B Pay (Basic) - A Member who is certified as an EMT-Band is assigned to the Ambulance may be entitled to differential pay calculated at the rate of his or her regular wage plus fifteen percent (15%) for the duration of the shift.
- B. On-Call Status - All Members who are authorized or requested to be on standby or on-call duty status may be compensated in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act. Compensation may commence at the time the call was made with a minimum of two hours. Such payment may be made on the pay period following the standby or on-call duty authorization. All fulltime members may be required to participate in "On-Call/Standby" scheduling. Schedules may be made on an equitable, rotating basis. Members may opt to swap scheduled "On-Call/ Standby" duty provided that the swapped schedules are adequate and appropriate. Swapped Schedules must be documented by the parties involved, in writing, and are subject to the approval of the station officer in charge.

APPENDIX C - COMMITTEES

The Union and Management can establish Committees to facilitate and enhance operations and coordination amongst the Members and the Unit as a whole as may from time-to-time be deemed desirable.

APPENDIX D - EQUIPMENT AND UNIFORMS

- A. During the term of this Agreement the Department agrees to provide and replace the following issue of uniforms at no cost to the Member. It is the Department's intent to immediately provide to each Member at the time of hiring or promotion the uniforms, accessories or protective clothing listed in this Appendix. However, should such uniforms, accessories or protective clothing may not be in stock at the time of hiring or promotion, the Department may immediately process the appropriate paperwork necessary to obtain such items. No member may be allowed to work without the proper safety equipment.

- a. 5 Working Uniforms
- b. 1 Dress Uniform
- c. 1 pair Black Uniform Shoes
- d. 1 set Rain Gear

 - d. 1 Personal Flashlight
 - e. 1 Personal Stethoscope (for ambulance assignments and ALS members)
 - f. 2 pairs of work gloves
 - g. 1 pair of firefighting gloves
- B. The replacement of the above listed uniforms will be on an as needed basis as determined by the immediate supervisor (Captain or above). It is the Department's intent to immediately replace the item submitted for replacement after the item has been turned in. However, should the item in question not be in stock at the time the item is turned in, the Department may immediately process the appropriate paperwork necessary to obtain such item and without delay provide an equivalent temporary replacement for any and all safety equipment. Replacements will be made in the field by appropriate personnel. Replacements may be at no cost to the Member provided the Member follows appropriate procedures and was not negligent.
- C. When the Department may, for safety purpose, require the use of protective clothing, shoes, safety devises and/or equipment, they will be furnished without cost to the Members.
- D. The Department will purchase and provide equipment, protective clothing and devices that meet or exceed recognized NFPA standards.
- E. Safety of Emergency Vehicles - All emergency vehicles may meet NFPA standards within the five (5) year purchasing plan created by the Equipment Committee.

- F. Ceremonial Guard - The Department may provide a uniform and all the necessary equipment to all Members who elect to participate in the Ceremonial Guard for their respective shift.

APPENDIX E - LIVING/WORKING CONDITIONS

1. All Department, 24-hour fire stations/facilities may include: hot and cold potable running water, showers, one refrigerator/freezer adequate air conditioning so that the temperature can be maintained at 75 degrees Fahrenheit, lockers, beds, or bunks, desk and chair, filing cabinet, medical supply storage, stove, clothes washer and dryer, working sewage, eye wash stations, and basin sinks, as provided for in GOSHA regulations and where funding is made available to GFD.
- 2) In the event a Member believes that any equipment needs repair, written notice may be made via chain of command to the Fire Chief or designee, who may determine if the repair is needed, and if so make arrangements for the repair within a reasonable period of time.
- 3) When repairs to safety items are not made or reasonable accommodations have not been made, as determined by the Fire Chief (in a cooperative effort with the Union), members assigned to these stations may be temporarily transferred to a station where facilities are available.
- 4) The Department will provide and maintain the following reference materials if funding is made available at all Fire and Rescue Stations as designated below, including, but not limited to:
 - a) Operations & Policy Manuals (OPM).
 - b) International Fire Service Training Association (IFSTA) manuals for all fire stations.
 - c) A complete and continually updated copy of the Personnel Rules and Regulations and an additional selection of reading materials and training aids will be maintained and upgraded in the Training Division/Bureau, and will be available to Members upon request.
- 5) The Department may provide computer capability to each Emergency Response Facility with the current Microsoft Windows Program for Members' use. Each computer with accompanying peripherals may be connected to Broadband Internet. Members may not be restricted from using the computer / internet for official and/ or Union business.
- 6) The Department may make all attempts to provide redundant water and power sources to each station / worksite, with sufficient capacity to ensure the continuity of operations of Emergency Response Facilities in the event of a man-made or natural disaster.
- 7) The Department may make available counseling / debriefing services to all Members, at the Department's Expense. Members who elect to use said services, may suffer no loss in pay or benefits of any kind while accessing the services, to include necessary travel time (not to exceed a total of two (2) hours) to access said counseling/ debriefing services.
